

PRINCE ALBERT COSMOGRAPH

February 28, 2024

Seven Cosmo's braved minus 20-degree temperatures to-night and enjoyed a pork sweet and sour dish with rice, mixed beans, salad followed by a very enjoyable fruit crisp with ice cream. Too bad you missed this one Merv!

This was also the evening of our directors meeting – a brief summary follows.

Cosmo Art handed out the 2024 Cosmo football pool tickets to-night. Sales can start now. If you require more tickets, please get them from Cosmo Art or AI. Please do not share with others as keeping track of tickets becomes very difficult.

Prince Albert Cosmopolitan Club donated $2,000 to the Salvation Army to assist with their food program.

The Salvation Army has served up to 289 meals in a day with the average around 140. That would translate into 50,000 meals in a year. This is funded by the Christmas Cheer Kettles that 200 volunteers staff each year. The Cosmo Club has staffed a kettle each year for a day in December. Over 700 children were served meals over the Christmas weekend.

President of the Cosmopolitan Club, Denis Korniski presents Major Ed Dean of the Salvation Army with a $2,000 cheque.

Prince Albert Cosmos entered a team for the 25th Annual Monty Funspiel at the Curling Club. We have been there since 2004 and enjoyed a day of curling (in one game we had an 8 rocks of the opposition counting against us: Note there are only 8 rocks per team, - but we still won the game).

We had our picture taken on the ice as we presented our donation of $2,500 to the Mont St. Joseph Senior Care Home. After completing 3 curling games we gathered in the Rock and Iron lounge for a delicious food platter. The 32 curling Teams and sponsors raised over $30,000 for the Care Home that day.

Cosmo Curling team with guest Ian Gray, Cosmos Archie Aug, Norman Hill, Kurt Fuchs. Ian's father also named Ian Gray, was a charter member of our Club way back in 1939.

Our February bingo was held and our club served over 300 patrons. Thank you to the members who worked very hard to keep up with demand! Our next bingo will be March 26. Cosmo Al was caught with a mop in his hand at bingo. He was given instructions on how to use it but still had trouble. He said Pam tried to teach him but was never successful.

Cosmo Art gave an up-date on our donation policy and with some discussion it is coming closer to being ready. The treasurer's report was given and approved.

The 30-year celebration of the Saskatoon Cosmopolitan Club will be held March 14 at the Coachman Restaurant in Saskatoon. It looks like we will have members attending with our greetings.
